Readings: ACTS 16:9-15
JOHN 14:23-29

Looking Ahead!

We are closing in on the end of the great fifty days of Easter and with the culmination of the Easter season we prepare for the great celebration of the birth of the Church, the Day of Pentecost. We celebrate Pentecost on May 15th this year and we do want to make it a celebration!

Spring is a busy time of year and with the weather getting warmer, we to try to get outside and shake off the dust of winter from our bones. We would like to invite everyone from the Incarnation community to come together to celebrate spring, to celebrate our wonderful community and re-connect with one another There are few places in society these days where we can gather as a community to meet new people and enter into new relationships; our church gives us this opportunity.

So, please make a point of joining us on Sunday May 15th for a re-union of sorts and a celebration of our community, our Church and the gifts of God that we are so blessed to enjoy and share in this community.

See you on the 15th.

Peace,
Michael

This Week at Inca

---

Contemplative Fire – Sunday, May 15, 8:00pm.

Are you looking for time to reflect, meditate and recharge your spiritual life? Each meeting begins with a communal sharing of food followed by quiet and intentional reflection in the gathering area. The response to this has been very encouraging. We continue to see new faces at each meeting and look forward to growing this community. For more information, please speak to Michael. All are welcome.

Refugee Family - Update

In February Inca was matched with a Syrian refugee family living in Turkey. In a rare turn of events our family, a mother with two small children, declined coming to Canada because she didn't want to be separated from the rest of her extended family. In late March we were fortunate to be matched with another refugee family. This family is also from Syria but currently living in Lebanon. They are a husband and wife with a 3-year old son, a daughter who turns 2 in July and a baby on the way in mid-August. The wife understands a little bit of English. Both parents have high school level education. The husband is an electrician by trade. The refugee committee is busy preparing for their arrival. Their exact travel date is unknown at this time. Our best guess is that they will arrive in Oakville by the end of June.

Thank you everyone for all the generous donations of toys, household items and furniture for the refugee family. We have almost everything that a family will need. Here is a list of items we are still looking for:

- diaper bag, activity mat, infant clothing (onesies, sleepers, receiving blankets), washcloths
- laundry basket, drying rack, iron and ironing board, plunger
- broom and dust pan, bucket and mop
- tools
- tablet
- garbage cans for bathroom and bedrooms, small garbage bags
- fire extinguisher, batteries

If you have any of these items, please give them to Leslie Hickey

Nametags let people know who you are and make it helpful for people to put names to faces, especially for newcomers

Receiving Communion

All people at Incarnation are invited to receive the bread and wine at communion. The bread is received from the priest who stands between the servers who offer wine from the common cup; choose whatever side is free. You may choose to receive from an individual wine cups available to the left of the altar. Take one, consume the wine and replace the empty cup in the same spot. We hope this provides an inclusive approach to communion where all are welcome.
