

This Week at Inca

SPREAD THE WORD

Family Update

Our family from Syria continues to thrive in Oakville. Both parents are enrolled in full time English classes and progressing nicely. All four kids are happy in day care. Everyone is enjoying the peaceful living in Canada. Samer, who is a trained electrician, is now ready to start interviewing for jobs in his field. If you have any contacts in the electrical industry, please ask if they are looking for a hard working employee with good people skills. Any leads can be directed to Samer or alternatively to Lynne Jenkins at lynnesjenkins@gmail.com. Please spread the word and let your network know that Samer is ready for employment in an electrical capacity.

Confirmation Celebration

This Sunday, May 7th at 4pm, Christ's Church Cathedral, Hamilton

Please join us in congratulating our Confirmation Candidates: Ewan Lorimer, Ian Gowing and Julia Lusby. May they receive the richness of God's blessing and the support of the Inca community to help them, and continue to guide them, on their spiritual journey.

Spring Cleaning at Incarnation

Please join us, if you can! The first-round clean-up made a significant dent in clearing some of the larger waste pieces. Let's keep this momentum going. Mac and David J are preparing the list of jobs – check with them about what kinds of tools would be helpful. Anyone have a truck for trips to the waste management centre?

Contemplative Fire is space and time to reflect, meditate, review, and recharge your emotional, spiritual and physical life. We provide a short time of hospitality starting at 7pm then from 8:00 to 9:00 pm we gather together as a contemplative and intentional community. We seek to enable reflection and meditation for all, from the novice to the experienced person.

Important Conversations – Special Discussion Groups

We are looking to form two, short-term discussion groups to help us develop more concrete ideas and an action plan for two very important topics. If interested in helping with one of the following, please let Michael or one of the wardens know.

Property Vision Group Meeting – many thanks to those who participated on Sunday, April 23 after worship

Branding Vision – Participants in this group will discuss how we present ourselves to a community that is becoming more and more secular. How do we invite people to participate in our activities and worship, what language do we use, how do we find common values?

We'll examine some of Jesus' hard talk including sayings like: 'I did not come to bring peace but a sword.', or 'If your eye causes your problems, pluck it out.' No extensive knowledge of the bible is necessary; only a commitment to read and reflect on the upcoming scripture passage before you come, and being willing to contribute to the discussion. A sign-up sheet will be available a few weeks before the bible study starts and study guides are available by clicking here or at forsythe1003@gmail.com

'OPEN BETHLEHEM' Friday, May 5 at 7:30pm at Incarnation

Open Bethlehem is a movie that tells the story of Bethlehem born Leila Sansour's efforts to draw international attention to what is happening to the birth place of Jesus under the Israeli occupation. Bethlehem has been encircled by the 26-foot-high 'Separation Barrier' wall, causing severe difficulties for Palestinians living in the town or outside of it, to enter or to leave. Wael Kabbani, the Executive Creative Director of Iambic Dream Films, the producers of the movie, will be present to add further comments and to answer questions. This is a fundraising event with proceeds of the $15 entrance fee being divided between Incarnation and the producers of the movie.

This & That

New Volunteer coordinator.

We have lots of way you can get involved. Positions include: altar prep, greeters, readers, hosts and coffee preparation. Youth can gain some volunteer high school hours. Training will be provided. Contact Julia Lockhart if you are interested in helping out. Don't forget to mark changes to the schedule on the master copy in the office.

Here's how we're recycling milk bags at Ellengale Public School.

Everyone works together to flatten the bags. Flattened bags are folded, cut and made into loops. And then we start to weave.

Our recycling efforts! New procedures

Thank you to all our hard-working volunteers who prepare the coffee and help with the set-up and clean-up of our premises. The daycare has been testing a new green bin routine with much success. We have almost completely eliminated critter attacks!

- Start a new SMALL green bin for each service or event. Before leaving, tie off the bag and move the SMALL green bin waste to the shed and deposit into the LARGE green bin. This will eliminate any critter attacks. No green bins are to be left in the kitchen or out the back door after each event. If you don't know where the key to the shed is located, please ask a Warden or office staff.
- Green bin liners are located in one of the 3 stacked multi-coloured baskets in the kitchen on the counter by the small sink
- All recycling needs to be emptied after each coffee hour or event. The large blue recycling bins are located at the back door. Please dump all recycling into the larger bins before leaving the church.

JUST A LITTLE Reminder

Changes to Order of Service or Bulletin News - Any changes need to be sent to the office by Tuesday, noon. office@incarnationchurch.ca

Receiving Communion

All people at Incarnation are invited to receive the bread and wine at communion. The bread is received from the priest who stands between the servers who offer wine from the common cup; choose whatever side is free. You may choose to receive from an individual wine cups available to the left of the altar. Take one, consume the wine and replace the empty cup in the same spot. We hope this provides an inclusive approach to communion where all are welcome.
