

Remembrance Sunday

November pierces with its bleak remembrance
Of all the bitterness and waste of war;
Our silence tries but fails to make a semblance
Of that lost peace they thought worth fighting for,
Our silence seethes instead with wraiths and whispers
And all the restless rumour of new wars,
For shells are falling all around our vespers,
No moment is unscarred, there is no pause.
In every instant bloodied innocence
Falls to the weary earth, and whilst we stand
Quiescence ends again in acquiescence,
And Abel's blood still cries from every land.
One silence only might redeem that blood;
Only the silence of a dying God.

THE BAKE SALE

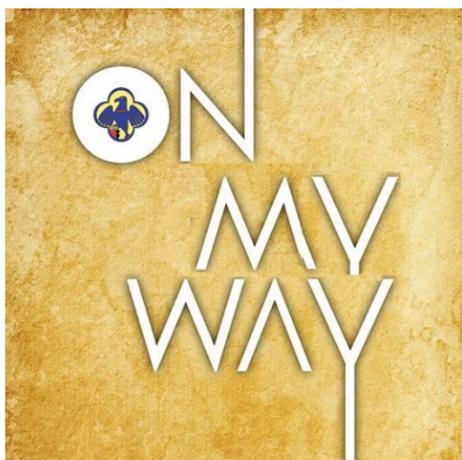

Be part of something big! The Bake Table at our Christmas is one of our most lucrative fundraisers. Customers specifically look for traditional Christmas baking, including: short bread, gingerbread, fudge, cookies, squares, especially squares containing chocolate, fruit or lemon; mincemeat tarts, date squares and even carrot cake was. Banana bread and Rice Krispie squares do not sell. If you baked last year, please bake again. If you did not bake, please pick one, or better yet, two or three of your family favourites and join in!

Completed treats can be brought into the chapel:

Wednesday Nov. 14; Thursday Nov. 15 and Friday November 16.

We will be plating in the evening.

Michele Stevens michelestevens.4@gmail.com is the co-ordinator.

ON MY WAY: Faith at Work

Over the next few months we will be offering 4 evenings of education, exploration and dialogue for people to explore the role of faith in their life. How does one's faith/spirituality intersect with your everyday existence? Does faith inform the way you behave; how you work, how you make decisions or how you engage with family and friends? There will be a keynote speaker for each of these sessions and then an opportunity for small group discussion as well as a question and answer period. Each session begins at 7 pm and concludes at 9 pm.

Thursday Nov. 22th

Kundalini Yoga – new series continues each Sunday, 7pm

In a hectic, chaotic world, take time to go inside and experience something new. Kundalini Yoga is sometimes referred to as the Yoga of Awareness. We begin with breathing exercises and then a kriya (exercise set), followed by a meditation (silent or voiced) and a savasana (deep rest). The sequences and kriyas open the body and one's own awareness to source energy.

Please bring a yoga mat and a bolster or small cushion to raise the hips off the floor when seated. All exercises can be done by everyone at their own level, and from a chair if needed. Please wear comfortable clothes that allow easy movement. Every Body is welcome.

Continues through Nov. 29. $15.00 per class cash at the door. Contact Colette Shand, Phone: 905-808-4508 or shand.colette@bell.

Christmas Market - Saturday, November 17

Time to start thinking about shopping!

Mark your calendars and bring a friend to one of Oakville's most loved Christmas Markets!

Remember, the bake table ALWAYS sells out!

Incarnation Choir Rehearsals Wednesdays at 7:15

The Incarnation Choir meets on Wednesdays for rehearsal. We are a friendly group and would love to have more singers join us. You do not need to have vast musical experience!

If you are interested in more information about the Incarnation Choir, please contact Charlene at charlene@charlenepauls.com.

Coffee Time

We are trying something new!

Coffee will be available between the two services on Sunday. Come a few minutes before the 10:00 service and grab a mug before it begins. You can top up your mug after the service as well. Coffee hour volunteers will still be responsible for preparing coffee and refreshments for after the 10:00 worship.

Wing and a Prayer – Thursday, November 22

We meet at 6:30pm at Monaghan's. Cost: $30 per person including food and drink. RSVP Keith Lockhart at keith.lockhart@stockton-ag.com. Everyone is welcome!
