

CHRISTMAS MARKET – THIS SATURDAY!

Time to bid, buy and eat!

Doors open at 9am, silent auction table ends at 1pm, tea room serves lunch between 11-2pm

Remember, the bake table ALWAYS sells out!

CONNECTIONS: Breaking bread and building bonds

Michael Coren is helping us with a new program to encourage engagement, companionship and reduce isolation with our neighbours at the Dorval complex.

We'll be hosting free spaghetti dinners, here at Incarnation, as a way to bring together people who may arrive as strangers, share stories over dinner, and leave as friends. Nothing binds us together like food. Even the word 'companion' comes from Latin and means 'with bread' – someone friendly with whom to share a meal.

The first event will take place on Friday, December 6 at 6pm.

Volunteers are needed for set up, cooking, serving, clean up and driving participants to and from the dinner.

Sign-up sheets are at the back table.

ON MY WAY: Faith at Work

Over the next few months we will be offering 4 evenings of education, exploration and dialogue for people to explore the role of faith in their life. How does one's faith/spirituality intersect with your everyday existence? Does faith inform the way you behave; how you work, how you make decisions or how you engage with family and friends? There will be a keynote speaker for each of these sessions and then an opportunity for small group discussion as well as a question and answer period. Each session begins at 7 pm and concludes at 9 pm.
