

The season of Advent is here! As we prepare for the coming of our Lord, we will be joining thousands of other churches who have chosen to celebrate the Advent Conspiracy. This was founded on the radical idea that we can celebrate Christmas humbly, beautifully, and generously. Advent is the story of a wondrous moment when God entered our world to make things right. It is the greatest story ever told and it changes everything—including the way we celebrate Christmas.

WORSHIP FULLY

Christmas begins and ends with Jesus.

SPEND LESS

Free up your resources to support things that truly matter

GIVE MORE

Give more intentionally and relationally.

LOVE ALL

Radically love others like Jesus did

Advent Conspiracy is about the entire body of Christ at work in the world. As we worship fully, spend less, give more, and love all, something begins to happen that is greater than any single person, church, or denomination. As the Church, we are telling the story of Jesus to the watching world.

We invite you to Conspire with us.

There will be a keynote speaker for each of these sessions and then an opportunity for small group discussion as well as a question and answer period. COMMUNITY NEWS

CBC's 2018 Massey lecture series

This year's lecture was given by investigative journalist and bestselling author, Tanya Talaga.. It is titled: All Our Relations: Finding the Path Forward.

The lectures originate from Talaga's reporting as the 2017-2018 Atkinson Fellow in Public Policy, exploring issues of Indigenous youth suicide in communities in Canada and beyond. In her lectures, Talaga explored the legacy of cultural genocide experienced by Indigenous peoples, how that legacy has led to forced disconnection from land and language, and the need for Indigenous self-determination in the social, cultural and political arena. These are lectures about values for the times, and for all people.

The lectures can be heard in podcast version on CBC radio's programme Ideas or they can be read in the book format "All our relations", published by House of Anansi press.
