
Walking through Lent

Each Sunday through Lent we will be exploring themes gleaned from the weekly readings. Themes we will focus on are: Temptation, courage, vulnerability, suffering, doubt and finding God in unexpected places.

We are excited and pleased to have these special guests who will share stories, ideas, and speak about these themes.

March 17th- Rebecca Taube – Director of R.O.A.D.

March 24th- Andrew Chown- actor most recently seen in Burden of Proof

March 31st- Esther Wieler- social worker, teacher, traveller, advocate

We hope many of you will join us and support these courageous people who are offering themselves on our behalf.

GOOD TO KNOW:

Thought-Provoking Conversations

Please consider setting aside time on the following three evenings during Lent to explore some of the most thought-provoking questions of our times. Together we will seek to clarify our understanding of what it means to be Christian, to explore the arguments of atheism/secularism, and to examine the rise of people identifying as 'spiritual but not religious'. Please pass along this invitation to interested friends and neighbours.

THIS & THAT

Milk Bag Collection

We're still collecting Milk bags for the kids at Ellengale Public School

Gary and Morag Chambers

One of Garry's significant fears is heights, however he recently decided enough was enough, and he wouldn't be "held captive" by it any longer. On a recent trip to Costa Rica, he zip lined in the mountains down 10 successive platforms!!

One of Morag's most memorable moments was a call she received from her 7-year-old daughter while she was on the Go Train. "Mommy, help! Connor is running down the street naked and Sharro (the nanny) can't catch him!"
