

Walking through Lent

Each Sunday through Lent we will be exploring themes gleaned from the weekly readings. Themes we will focus on are: Temptation, courage, vulnerability, suffering, doubt and finding God in unexpected places.

We are excited and pleased to have these special guests who will share stories, ideas, and speak about these themes.

March 31st- Esther Wieler- social worker, teacher, traveller, advocate

We hope many of you will join us and support these courageous people who are offering themselves on our behalf.

GOOD TO KNOW:

Thought-Provoking Conversations

Please consider setting aside time on the following three evenings during Lent to explore some of the most thought-provoking questions of our times. Together we will seek to clarify our understanding of what it means to be Christian, to explore the arguments of atheism/secularism, and to examine the rise of people identifying as 'spiritual but not religious'. Please pass along this invitation to interested friends and neighbours.
