

It's Halloween Sunday.

If you're joining us in-person, or online, wear your best, scariest costume!

Do you miss your Christmas Market sweet treats?

Never fear, our talented (there is a reason our bake table sells out every year) Christmas Market bakers have you covered!

This year, you can pre-order favourites Christmas delights from our online menu. All goodies will be available for COVID safe pick up at the church on the afternoon of November 27, just in time for the festive season.

Choose from delicious:

- Scottish shortbread dipped in dark chocolate,
- Classic chocolate chip cookies,
- Sparkling ginger snaps,
- Chocolate orange and vanilla pinwheels,
- Luscious lemon squares
- Buttery Florentine bars.

We also have a lovely, light fruit cake - this is not your grandmother's recipe!

GOOD TO KNOW:

We Miss you A Lot!

Miss your church friends and seating partners?

After 18 months of lockdowns and restrictions, we longed to hug and see each other. Well, we are here! We are back for in-person worship

We know some of you may be a little hesitant, and that is understandable. Meanwhile, we want you to know WE ARE BACK and HOPE TO SEE YOU SOON (with your mask) and we do hope you are vaccinated! To make it easy to join us, there is no need to register for in-person worship, but please arrive 15 min early to work through the screening process.

Coffee hour is back!!!!!!

There will be a Hallowe'en-themed coffee hour Sunday, October 31st. The forecast calls for seasonal temperatures and partial sun, however, have the woollies dusted off, just in case.

November and December Volunteer Schedule –

Julia has created the new November/December volunteer schedule! Thanks to everyone who raises a hand and helps with our services.

Race for Rice

Our bin is overflowing with your rice donations. Thank you for all your boxed and bagged rice. A volunteer from Oakville Ready will be picking up this week and delivering to Kerr Street Mission.

Thank you!

Beaded Pins

A reminder, you can purchase beaded pins to support Orange Shirt Day, the REDress project and Remembrance Day poppies.

Poke around and you might find the perfect Christmas gift.

Keep us informed

Has your contact information changed? Have you moved? New home or cell number? New email address? Please let us know. We want to stay in touch. Ways to update your information:

- call the office,
- email Margot
- email Michael or Randy
- drop your written changes in the offering plate OR hand it to Michael or Randy

UPDATED LIST! Household furnishing needed for our friend Samer

Our friend, Samer, is moving into his own home on Dec 1.

We are still looking for: 1 queen box spring, a coffee table, 2 end tables, 2 lamps, a vacuum cleaner, a TV stand, a newer model TV, towels, cutlery, cooking utensils, glasses. If you have any of these items taking up space in your home and you want to donate, please email Lynne Jenkins at lynnesjenkins@gmail.com (note the “s” between first and last name).

We are also looking for help with the move on Dec 1. Anyone have a pickup truck that can be used for the move? Extra muscle to lend to the cause for lifting furniture and setting up the house for Samer and the 4 kids? Please send Lynne an email to let her know how you can help. Thanks!

REDress project

From October 17 through November 25, we will participate in the REDress project, in support of the innumerable Indigenous women, girls and 2S people who have been murdered or who are missing. The REDress Project by Metis artist Jaime Black is a public art installation that was created in response to the missing and murdered Indigenous women (MMIW) epidemic in Canada and the United States. The on-going project began in 2010 and commemorates missing and murdered indigenous women from the First Nations, Inuit, Métis (FNIM), and Native American communities by hanging empty red dresses in a range of environments. The project has also inspired other artists to use red to draw attention to the issue of MMIW, and prompted the creation of Red Dress Day.

Incarnation's Prayer Team Prayer works when we work it!

Our Team consist of a group of intercessors who pray for our Sunday public prayer requests throughout the week. But did you know that in addition to the Sunday Prayers, we have a Private Prayer List? Some people prefer for their requests to be prayed for privately. The Prayer Team also prays for these requests. Let us know what is your preference.

If you have questions or concerns, please contact me Randy associate@incarnationchurch.ca

Halton Climate Collective (HCC) – LET'S READ!

The HCC campaign continues to engage our community about the complex issues of climate change. This year's LET'S READ book by Katherine Hayhoe, is titled "Saving Us, A Climate Scientist's Case for Hope and Healing in a Divided World."

On November 18, Halton Environment Network will host an interactive event on Zoom with Dr Katharine Hayhoe, about the book

The New York Times calls her one of the nation's most effective communicators on climate change. She uses the field of human psychology to teach the reader how to talk to others about climate change

Learn More About God's Mission

Have you heard the buzz about the Niagara School for Missional Leadership? The school seeks to train leaders for God's mission - including you!

"We hope every person who takes one of these courses is as inspired as we have been to see how it will transform them and the culture of our parishes and diocese," says Bishop Susan Bell.

The school was launched at the start of. If you haven't already, consider enrolling in one or more of the following courses, and invite a friend to join you!

DIOCESE OF NIAGARA NEWS AND UPDATES

In response to COVID-19, Children, Youth and Family ministry leaders from the Diocese of Niagara created an online one stop hub for families. Not having that village of extended family, parishioners, teachers, peers, and community supports has impacted families in a way that needed immediate assistance.

Treaty Recognition Week Event

In recognition of Treaties Recognition Week (November 1-7), we invite you to join Dean Tim Dobbin and Archdeacon Val Kerr on Wednesday November 3 at 7:00pm, for a conversation with Janis Kahentóktha Monture, the executive director of the Woodland Cultural Centre. Their conversation will be a wide-ranging discussion on the Woodland Cultural Centre, the Mohawk Institute Residential School, the Save the Evidence Campaign, and the ongoing Truth and Reconciliation process.

One of the largest First Nations-run cultural centres in the country, the Woodland Cultural Centre was established in 1972 upon the closure of the Mohawk Institute Residential School. An active volunteer in her community at Six Nations and in Brantford, Janis previously served as the director of tourism and cultural Initiatives for the Six Nations of the Grand River Development Corporation before joining the Centre.

You can participate in this livestreamed event by visiting the Cathedral's YouTube page.

Your Will Can Do More!

September marks the launch of Will Power, a national movement to educate Canadians on the power they have to make a difference through their Wills and estate. Leaving a small portion of your estate to your parish, our diocese, or both could result in a bigger contribution than you ever thought possible, while still supporting those you love.

Will Power offers a number of resources to help you plan. For instance, here's a short and valuable guide to help as you meet with your financial advisor. Don't have a financial advisor? No problem, a link to financial advisors both locally and nationally is provided in the guide!

Don't be shy. Spread the word to others. There is nothing too small to be thankful for. Want to share your congrats, celebrations, thanks, and gratitude? Send a note to Randy at associate@incarnationchurch.ca.

WE ARE GRATEFUL FOR:

- Marlene S. is grateful.
- Jim, David and Samer for constructing the temporary concealment wall which effectively hides the chairs.
- David, Stephen and Jeff as they guide us through new heights of worship technology.
- Mary P. for providing new greenery and pots to enhance our worship space.
- Our newish couch.
- Our choir, lead by Charlene, is gradually returning.
- Our wardens as they continue to lead us with God's guidance.
- Our volunteers lead by Julia.
